I quite like this game. It's casual difficulty, with a little rampy bump for bosses. I haven't played it long, but I know it's a game I will play a lot because it's fun. It's got some nice RPG elements to it and the simple graphics and stuff appeal to me. I got this for $0.99 during the steam winter sale, and it's worth the full asking price of $4.99 IMO. Will be watching this developer for more games in future too.. Very good game!

Nice gameplay but I wish there was WASD controls instead of the arrows and I wish there was mouse fire option. Otherwise excellent.

And would be cool if I could save progress also on the field not just in houses or in mines. That change would be good.

And better graphics would be cool.

Yes game is good I am trying to beat it but its hard! Even in easy its hard.
